"ART-Kurultay"

is planned to be made a forum movement of the republic. This was announced by the organizers of the First Culture Forum, which took place in the capital of Bashkortostan in the Toratau Congress Hall.

"Our forum will become the forum movement of the Republic of Bashkortostan "ART-Kurultay", which will unite all ages and categories of the population, will become a permanent platform," Minister of Culture RB Amina Shafikova said.

This year, the forum "ART-Kurultay: Children 0+" will take place on Children's Day on June 1. A special children's working group developed the draft program for this unusual forum. Within the framework of the cultural forum "ART-Kurultay", a children's strategic session "ART-Kurultay. Children" was held. The event was moderated by the young presenters of the TV channel Rustem Tukhbetov and Rustem Rafgutdinov. The children's session brought together talented children from all over the republic to communicate and create various projects.

It is planned to hold "Silver ART-Kurultay 65+" in autumn in the Year of Health and Active Longevity in the Republic of Bashkortostan.

"We consider it very important to develop opportunities for creative self-realization of people of the third age, including as perfect volunteers. After all, no one needs to prove that a person lives longer when they have something to do; they are needed and passionate about creativity," Amina Shafikova marked.

Also, the Minister of Culture proposed, together with the leaders of the "ART-Kvadrat" project, to discuss the idea of holding "Youth ART-Kurultay 14+".

“The cultural world” web portal is the only media to tell about Bashkir culture. It also highlights the achievements of famous people in the republic, tells about young artists.
